3. ACTIVITIES OF PORTFOLIO

1. Welcome Co-opted Members

- Congratulations to the successful co-option applicants and welcome to the AULSS Committee.
- During the Summer break we did 2 rounds of co-option, due to a resignation from a Competitions Representative and the Executive's decision to expand the Communications Portfolio by adding one additional Representative.
- A big congratulations and welcome to the following committee members:
 - Competitions: Nicholas Reese, Patricia Papathanasopoulos, Isabella Burgess, Grace Jin, Emma Colovic and Kurt Schenk.
 - Hilarian: Cerys Davies and Ikhwan Fazli
 - Communications: Shunem Josiah and Amy Lancaster.
 - Careers: Kane McAskill
 - Social Justice and Equity: Caitlin Arthur McGill
 - Mature Age Representative: Tony Tu
 - IT Representative: Thu Nguyen
- I have tabled the reasons for selecting the successful applicants in Appendix 1 and 2.
 - The co-option process is designed to be transparent and anonymous. I first de-identified applications and then circulated them to the Executive. The Executive then voted based on the merits of each application, and I abstained from voting.

2. O'Week Reflection

EXECUTIVE REPORTS COMMITTEE MEETING 1

- On Monday 21 February the AULSS ran our annual O'Week stall to welcome the First-Year students to campus.
- Thank you to Bella, Lucas, Patricia, Jess, Aryan and Annie for volunteering to help out on the day (see Appendix 2).

3. First-Year Induction Lecture & Meet and Greet

- On Wednesday 23 February 2022, Bella, Bryan and I spoke at the First-Year Induction lecture, which was held F2F and via livestream. This presentation explained the mission and goals of the AULSS, as well as the events and initiatives we run.
- In collaboration with the Law School, we hosted a casual Meet and Greet for the First-Year students on the Ligertwood courtyard. Free coffees from St Raphs, donuts and snacks were on offer, as well as the Education Portfolio's excellent First Year Guide.
- It was fantastic to meet such an enthusiastic group of First-Year students throughout O'Week! Thank you to the Committee members who came out to welcome the First-Years.

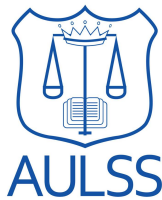

4. Humanitix

- I have been exploring the possibility of implementing a new ticketing platform for AULSS events.
- We have used Eventbrite for as long as I can remember. However, Humanitix is a not-for-profit organisation and social enterprise ran from NSW, that directs 100% of the proceeds from the online booking fees into helping disadvantaged kids around the world. They have currently transformed over $1 million dollars' worth of booking fees into projects such as funding 10,000 days of education and 15,000 meals for disadvantaged children (all from the proceeds of one University and one soccer game). <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Moreover, as Humanitix have a not-for-profit rate on their booking fees, this will make tickets cheaper for our students.<ul style="list-style-type: none">○ A $25.00 ticket on Eventbrite would charge $1.52 in booking fees, costing students a total of $26.52.○ A $25.00 ticket on Humanitix would charge $1.13 in booking fees, costing students a total of $26.13.○ The platform is free to use. No sign up costs.• Humanitix reached out to me personally, as Law Societies across Australia are switching to the platform, including Monash Law Students' Society and University of Melbourne Law Students' Society.<ul style="list-style-type: none">○ The Humanitix team has worked alongside these Law Societies to ensure the platform is suitable for large scale events, such as Law Balls, and provides mechanisms for dietary requirements and table requests within the platform, which would remove the external use of Google Forms that we have used in the past.• All in all, I think this is an incredible initiative ran by a team of passionate and hard-working Aussies and could allow our ticket sales to create a real difference.

EXECUTIVE REPORTS COMMITTEE MEETING 1

EXECUTIVE REPORTS COMMITTEE MEETING 1

- I would love to know the Committees' thoughts! (See Appendix 3).
- Link to Humanitix website if you would like to look more into the organisation:
<https://www.humanitix.com/au/about-us>

5. Law School Advocacy Assessment Survey

- In early December 2021, I sent out an all students email with a survey about the Law School's advocacy assessments.
- At the beginning of my term, I started working with Kellie Toole, continuing her work with Peter Tantalos, with the aim of improving the quantity and quality of advocacy assessments in the LLB.
- A common problem amongst law students was that they were reaching final year subjects, which require an advocacy assessment, having little to no experience from prior assessments.
- This survey aimed to collect students' feedback and opinions on the current advocacy assessments in the LLB. After two rounds of social media promotion, we received (X) number of responses, and I am optimistic that they will help contribute to providing more practical assessments that can prepare us for practice.

6. International Student Event Grant

- Cornelia Koch reached out to notify us that the University are offering event grants of up to $500.00 to welcome the international students back to campus.
- The executive decided that the best option would be a casual event called 'Welcome International Students', with free coffees and food on the Ligertwood Moot Court. The Uni

	is a central and accessible venue for all students. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Domestic and International students are invited to attend to promote mingling and inclusivity. • If you have any other ideas, please let us know!
4. DISCUSSION POINTS	1. Law School Board Meeting <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • On March 31 I will be attended the Law School Board meeting. I will provide an update of our mission and initiatives for the year across each of the portfolios. • Does anyone have any issues/topics/questions related to the Law School that they would like me to take to that meeting?

EXECUTIVE REPORTS COMMITTEE MEETING 1

Appendix 1 – Co-option Reasons (round 1)

Competitions Representatives:	In selecting 6 applicants to co-opt out of 16 total applications received, the Competitions Portfolio placed emphasis on the effort that was put into writing the application, the relevant experience, organisational skills, and proof of commitment. The Executive then voted based off the merits of each individual applicant. The 6 successful applicants all demonstrated the relevance of their experience, a very high amount of effort put into the application writing, understanding of the value of competitions in the Law School, excellent written communication skills, properly developed ideas, and the ability to work in a team.
Communications Representative:	Out of the 7 applications received for the Communications Representative role, the successful applicant was chosen based on their excellent written communication skills, an evident desire to give back to the Law School Community, relevant experience in marketing design and in Canva and Adobe, a thorough understanding of the role and thoughtful new ideas.
Social Justice and Equity Representative:	Out of the X applications received for the role, the successful applicant was chosen based on their evident passion and interests in a broad range of social justice issues, fantastic experience in similar roles, creative and unique ideas for the portfolio demonstrating careful consideration and understanding of the role, and a breadth of transferable skills such as communication and leadership.
Hilarian Editors:	This was a difficult decision for the Executive to make due to the high quality of the 4 applications received. The Communications Portfolio drew emphasis on the distinction between a writer on the subcommittee and the skills required for the Editor position. The Communications Director placed heavy emphasis on graphic design skills required for a Hilarian Editor. The successful applicants were chosen based on their relevant internship experience, editing experience, relatable tone, and general Illustrator experience.
Careers Representative:	Out of 8 applications received for the role, the successful applicant was chosen based on their excellent written communication skills, fantastic experience in tutoring and treasurer positions and their innovative recommendations for the portfolio which showed a clear understanding of how the Careers Portfolio functions and how things can be improved. The Careers Portfolio were looking for someone with imitative, organisation,

	time management, connections, prior experience in similar roles and someone who would be confident speaking at Careers Seminars. The successful applicant ticked all these boxes.
Mature Age Representative:	Out of the 2 applications received for the role, the successful applicant was chosen based on their evident and genuine passion, fantastic ideas for the position to expand initiatives, extensive experience in various industries and a clear understanding of the role.
IT Representative:	Whilst we only received one application for the role (with others being submitted past the deadline and therefore invalid), the co-opted applicant demonstrated clear knowledge and experience in the position from studying a double degree in IT, used relevant technical language, an ability to learn and adapt as required by the position, graphic design experience relevant to the role's website design requirements, a passion and awareness of the importance of the intersection between law and technology and creative ideas put forward.

Competitions Representative:	Out of the 9 applications received, the successful applicant was chosen based on their evident organisational skills, excellent written communication abilities, a clear passion, clear appreciation and awards of the Portfolio, fantastic ideas to get students involved in Competitions and ensuring they are accessible for students unfamiliar with competitions and creative new initiatives put forward. Overall, an eloquent application.
Communications Representative:	We received 11 applications for this role. As the Communications Portfolio knew this Representative would be paired with the Careers Portfolio, they prioritised applicants with corporate experience so they would understand the professional tone required. The successful applicant was chosen as they set out a clear timeline that added to what the Portfolio already offers, demonstrated excellent organisation skills, understood the importance of colour design and language, focussed on increasing engagement, awareness of the design and marketing suitable to stakeholders, ability to work to deadlines and Canva experience.

	5. Merchandise Summer Order <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • I have had a meeting with the Merchandise supplier. I am awaiting a quote still as they are waiting for new prices themselves from the supplier. • Normally we only sell rugby jumpers and a few other items in Semester 1 for Summer Drop however the crew necks are so popular we are going to do a Semester 1 drop for that too. I am praying this will be successful. With good communication and promotion I think this could be a really good idea. • Refer to appendix 1 for items we are wanting to keep and items we are thinking about implementing. • Important other points and potential new initiatives: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Tote Bag Competition: winner of design will get free tote bag + 2. Bucket Hats 3. Can I please get a raise of hands who would genuinely consider buying a bucket hat for $26 or a Tote Bag (good quality one) for $25. • I aim to get an email out by week 3 for Summer drop. It is around a 2 week turnover which is an amazing timeframe.

3. ACTIVITIES OF PORTFOLIO	1. Come & Try Day (Competitions x Careers) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Held on Saturday (5 March). <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Following on from 2021, this is another great collaboration between the Careers and Competitions Portfolios. • It is an excellent opportunity for students to obtain a taste of each competition that the AULSS hosts and also to discover how the skills from each can make them an extremely desirable employee to various employers. • At the time of writing this report, registrations have not yet opened but we are expecting a reasonably large turnout. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ An update will be provided in the meeting once the event has taken place. • I would like to extend a big thank you to everyone involved and for all of their assistance with the event, from start to finish. 2. Qualifying/Dual-Qualifying as a Solicitor of England & Wales – the SQE: Webinar <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • In collaboration with the AULSS, the Law Training Centre (UK) will be hosting an informative session on the SQE (Solicitors Qualifying Examination) course and the process for qualifying/dual-qualifying as a Solicitor of England & Wales for our students. • It looks set to be a fantastic event – all of the organisational work has been completed and coordinated with the Law Training Centre (eg. Facebook event and marketing).

- The aim is for this relationship to continue to build in future years, resulting in many more excellent opportunities for students and also another sponsor for the AULSS.

3. How to Network Evening

- This event is an excellent build-up to Triversity Fair on the 31st of March, ensuring that students of all year levels are equipped with sensational networking skills and are less nervous about interacting with practitioners and professionals in general.
- At this stage, we have organised for Ms Fiona Brammy (Careers Education Officer) to provide an excellent presentation on networking which is specifically tailored to law students.
- Although the finer details are still being worked through, students will then break off into small groups with 'mentors' (students with a vast range of organisational and industry experience) to practice their networking skills.
- Within these groups, students will also be able to seek advice from the mentors in an informal setting.

4. Triversity Fair 2022

- In collaboration with the AAGE, USALSA and FLSA, the 2022 Triversity Fair has now been organised.
- The Facebook event was posted two weeks ago with an advertising poster and banner, as per our marketing plan, and will be displayed both online and physically on campus. We will continue to ramp up our marketing efforts as the event approaches.

- A memorandum of understanding has also been signed by the USALSA, FLSA and AULSS to ensure that the profits are split in the same manner as in 2021.
 - This means that 30% of the profit will be split equally by the three Societies and the remaining 70% will be divided proportionately based on student attendance of each of the Societies.
 - This is estimated to result in significant revenue for the AULSS, as will be reported after the event.
- As of 28 February 2022, there have been a total of 110 registrations for the event with the following breakdown:
 - Flinders University: 10
 - University of Adelaide: 85
 - University of South Australia: 14
 - Other: 1
- The following 14 exhibitors have also been confirmed at this point in time:
 - Attorney-General's Department (SA), Commercial and Legal, Dentons Australia Limited, DMAW Lawyers, HWL Ebsworth Lawyers, Johnson Winter & Slattery, Leo Cussen Centre for Law, LK Law, Lynch Meyer Lawyers, MinterEllison, Roma Mitchell Human Rights Volunteer Service, The College of Law, The Law Society of South Australia, Thomson Geer.

5. Careers & Clerkship Guide

- Work is currently in progress for the Careers & Clerkship Guide with the overall design already having been completed by our Director of Communications, Annie Yuan –

EXECUTIVE REPORTS COMMITTEE MEETING 1

	my team and I all agree that it looks spectacular so thank you Annie! <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Additionally, I would like to extend a big thank you to my entire team for all of their hard work and dedication in completing their allocated parts – this will guarantee a new and improved guide from 2021, including a range of new interviews and updated information. • A quote will be sought from Bowden Printing in the next few weeks to calculate the total cost of printing which I will then provide in a future Committee report. • The Careers & Clerkship Guide Launch Party will also be organised in the next few months. 6. Job Opportunities Board <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The Job Opportunities Board has already been updated numerous times (even before the semester started) which is an improvement from previous years. • I will work extremely hard with my team and our IT Officer, Thu Nguyen, to ensure that it gets updated every 2-3 weeks. Nevertheless, firms and organisations can send through various opportunities which we will endeavour to post as soon as possible. • The overall design of the Board has also been updated by Annie to a list format which will ensure a more concise layout.

12. O'Week Welcome Lecture

- Chelsea, Bella and I gave a short presentation about the AULSS to the first years in the Welcome Lecture.
 - Subpoint one.
- About 130 students were present that day.
- We had a meet and greet afterwards with the first years.
- My team and I were very impressed with this batch of first years and they were very keen and enthusiastic to start the year and get involved.
- We also gave away the first-year guides to the first years.
- Thank you to the executive members and my team for helping out with the meet and greet.

13. AULSS First Year Mentorship Program

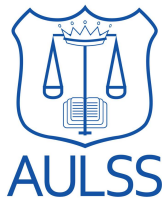

- I would like to thank those of you who applied as a Mentor.
- At the time of writing this report, we have 51 Mentors and 106 Mentees signed up to the event, which is a slightly higher than last year's applications!
- Applications nearly reached capacity within 24 hours after I opened applications.
- I closed the Mentee applications on Monday 28 February.
- All new applicants will be put on the waitlist until we have capacity to take on more Mentees.
- Therefore, I highly encourage all of you (third years and above) to sign up for this program as a Mentor as we want to give as many first years the opportunity to be a part of this program as possible.

EXECUTIVE REPORTS COMMITTEE MEETING 1

- The Portfolio's articles are topical to an issue of social injustice and advocate for change.
- The first article will be written by Social Justice Representative 'Paige'.
- The Portfolio is looking better ways to a new initiative to provide more recognition to the articles.

4. Ladies Night

- On Saturday 7th May, the Portfolio is running a Ladies Night Fundraiser. All proceeds will be donated to the Women's Legal Service (SA), a service which seeks to provide women and their families in vulnerable situations with access to justice.
- The event will be held at Golden Boy in the underground cellar bar, food included.
- Ticket price: $50.
- The table who raises the most between them, will win a 'dessert date' with the waiter.

5. Aboriginal Law Seminar

- On Tuesday 17th May, the Portfolio is running a seminar on Aboriginal Law.
- It is the first of two seminars ran by the Portfolio focussing on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander affairs.
- The seminar will educate students on cultural lawyering and how to better understand Aboriginal perspective.
