

Aurora Internship Program

Are you keen to experience working in the Indigenous sector?

Do you have an interest in native title, land rights, policy development, social justice, legal aid, community/environmental development?

Are you studying:

- » law or law/business
- » social sciences • anthropology • archaeology • sociology
 - community development • cultural heritage • education
 - environmental management • history • human geography
 - Indigenous studies • media/communications
- » health science/social welfare • psychology • social work

- Commonwealth funded internships for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander students and graduates
- 4 to 6 week winter & summer placements
- Unpaid internships for non Indigenous students and graduates
- Over 30 rural, remote and city locations to choose from across Australia

Applications for the summer 2018/19 round are open 6 August through 31 August

- Over 2,200 internship alumni • Over 170 Aurora Hosts
- 27% internship alumni employed in the Indigenous sector
- Over 450,000 hours additional capacity provided to the sector
- Approx. $16 million cost savings to the sector

auroraproject.com.au/internship-program

Proudly supported by the Australian Government

