

Aurora Internship Program

for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander students and graduates

Applications for the summer 2018/19 round are open 6 August through 31 August

Are you interested in a funded internship in the Indigenous sector?

Do you have an interest in native title, land rights, policy development, social justice, legal aid, community/environmental development?

Are you studying:

- » law or law/business
- » social sciences • anthropology • archaeology • sociology
 - community development • cultural heritage • education
 - environmental management • history • human geography
 - Indigenous studies • media/communications
- » health science/social welfare • psychology • social work

- 27% internship alumni employed in the Indigenous sector.
- Over 170 Indigenous sector Host organisations Australia-wide.
- Around 120 to 150 placement opportunities available in each round.

auroraproject.com.au/indigenous-applicants

Proudly supported by the Australian Government

